Class Songs

Tune—"All American Girl"

And now we're leaving our course at Vassar
We're going to leave the good old days behind
In all our joys and in all our sorrows
We'll be true to you, you'll find.
We'll miss our classmates
We'll miss the probies
We'll miss the patients
And the faculty
As we go forward upon our mission
May we be of help to thee.

Tune—"Shuffle Off to Buffalo"

Now we're going to leave you
And we know that it will grieve you
But it must be so, Boo, hoo hoo.
And won't you be happy, happy in the T. S. O.
There are some who tantalize us
There are some who like to ride us
So the time goes slow, Ooh, ooh, ooh
Then we have to shuffle, shuffle to the T. S. O.
Although the patients drive us crazy
And the doctors help them too,
And our minds are often hazy
One thing we're telling you,
If we had to do it over
Knowing 'twas no bed of clover
We would gladly go, Mmmmmmmmm
Off we all would hurry, Scurry to the T. S. O.

RUTH A. BADGLEY

"Badge"

Wappinger Falls, N. Y.

By word—"Boy, I could fall for him in a big way!"

Few people have courage to appear
As good as they really are.

HELEN M. BLACK

"Blackie"

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

By word—"Oh, isn't it marvelous?"

Work thou for pleasure, the thing thou lovest.

CHRISTINA K. BRUNO

"Chris"

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

By word—"And I just looked at him."

Meet trials with smiles and they vanish;
Face cares with a song and they flee.

LOIS M. COFFIN

"Coff"

Standfordville, N. Y.

By word—"Hot te do."

Her very frowns are fairer far
Than smiles of many maidens are.

FLORENCE CONKLIN

"Billy"

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

By word—"What ya doin', honey?"

Ambition knows no rest.

JUANITA CONNEVEY

"Chubby"

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

By word—"Let's go out and get a little air."

"I believe in sleep at night, plenty of fresh air and honest work with one's hands."

ELEANOR A. FERGUSON

"Fergie"

Hopewell Junction, N. Y.

By word—"And you think you're different."

Although her height is not excessive
Great possibilities may be stored within.

MARGARET C. FERGUSON

"Big Ferg"

Middle Hope, N. Y.

By word—"And, if I get a 'phone call!"

The first virtue, lass, if thou wouldst learn—

Is to restrain well thy tongue.

CONSTANCE E. HENDERSON

"Connie"

Elmhurst, Long Island

By word—"And I was mad. Boy, I was mad."

Of youth we can have but today.
We can always find time to grow old.

BEATRICE M. JENNINGS

"B. J."

Holmes, N. Y.

By word—"Gosh, though, I don't know."

None knew her but to love her;
None named her but to praise.

ERMA C. JENNINGS

"Squirmy"

Holmes, N. Y.

By word—"Now Beall"

To be a girl and thrill
When climbing, wind blown up the hill

MARGUERITA KALEMJIAN

"Klem"

Kerhonkson, N. Y.

By word—"Think nothing of it."

To be merry best becomes you
For out of question you were born
In a merry hour.

LUCY E. E. LAUB

"Laubie"

Hughsonville, N. Y.

By word—"No kidding, people make me sick around here."

Not looking for trouble,
Not causing great strife,
Quietly going her own way in life.

EDYTHE M. LUND

"Lund"

Hopewell Junction, N. Y.

By word—"Honestly, that place drives me bugs!"

My wealth is health and perfect ease;
My conscience clear my chief defense.

DOROTHY L. McLAURY

"Mack"

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

By word—"But, you get tired of it after a while."

I neither seek by bribes to please
Nor by deceit to breed offense.

MURIEL C. PURDY

"Purd"

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

By word—"Do you like this, kids?"

She speaks as the common people
But thinks as the wise men do.

HANNAH REHBECK

"Ray"

Arlington, N. Y.

By word—"You're telling me?"

Neither meek nor mild.

ELEANOR M. SMITH

"Smitty"

Saugerties, N. Y.

By word—"Listen, pal."

Speech is the mirror of the soul,
As one speaks, so she is.

RUTH E. WELLINGTON

"Duke"

Catskill, N. Y.

By word—"Hi ya, babe?"

She walks on earth,
But her head is concealed in the clouds.

Class Prophecy

Because time flies so swiftly by
It's fitting we should prophesy
Where each and every one will be
In nineteen hundred and forty-three.

So through a magic crystal ball
You'll see us clearly one and all
As in the future you shall gaze
We'll appear as in far days.

The first we see is Helen Black
Leading men to "The Campus" and back.

At the "Stone Chimney" Bruno and hubby are seen
Also B. Jennings with a man "Darn Keen."

Connie Henderson in that sweet bye and bye
Is busy baking pigeon pie.

Ruth Wellington has thrown her uniform away
And is dancing to fame in a cabaret.

Even now as the years do pass
Eleanor Ferguson stands before the glass.

Lois Coffin we see in deep despair
For the moths got all of Brook's hair.

Marguerita Kalemjian who would have thought her
Just as good a minister's wife as a minister's daughter.

Eleanor Smith has had to scheme and plan
But now she's happy—she has her man.

Remember Hannah—she's Rehbeck no more
She found two could live cheaply—but now she has four.

There's Billy Conklin with a smiling face
She's taken Miss McCrimmon's place.

Muriel Purdy has climbed so fast up the social scale
She's made Lady Astor appear like a snail.

Dot McLaury has wisdom to bring
To all the world—she knows everything.

Juanita Connevey in a perpetual hurry
Trying to find something about which to worry.

Lund has learned to like spaghetti and wine
Since she said "Yes" to Corozza's "Be mine?"

Erma Jennings is still alert
To find some one with whom to flirt.

Ruth Badgley? Yes she does appear
Holy smoke! she's selling beer.

Lucy Laub for ten years a "Mrs."
Still gets a thrill from Jimmie's kisses.

Margaret Ferguson fast climbed to fame
Watching Ob's she made her name.

Now the future fades away
We're back again to the present day
And if the crystal told me dirt
We hope that no one's feelings are hurt.

Class Will

Know all here by these presents that we, the 'class of 1933 of Vassar Brothers' Hospital, Poughkeepsie, in the County of Dutchess and the State of New York, now about to pass on to other realms in full possession of broadened minds, well trained memories, shattered hopes, superhuman abilities and deep regrets, do make and declare this our last will and testament:

To Miss McCrimmon, by request, we leave our unused late leaves.

To Gene and Brady, we leave our thanks and best wishes.

To Miss Cole, a lock to Home II with keys that turn both to the left and right.

To Miss Lindbergh, the assurance that future classes can't be any worse than ours.

To Miss Sweet, our good intentions.

To Miss Knapp, wooden heeled shoes.

To Dr. Minkle, we leave Aunt Em's corsets to improve his corpulent aspect.

To the class of 1936, we leave our code of ethics.

To Bird Sweet, we leave a cap and bib.

To the Training School Office, Purdy leaves her million dollar smile.

To Dr. Hayes, Klem leaves her art of coatin'—it's tried and tested.

To Miss Sease, we leave a silver tea service to use on Thursdays.

To Dr. Greene, Wellington leaves her dancing feet.

To future anatomy classes, Henderson leaves her specimens—all except a few gallstones.

To Dr. Scholl's, Bruno and Connevey leave their foot troubles.

To Gormley, Smitty leaves her way with the men.

To Decker, B. Jennings leaves her maidenly blush.

To Dr. Hayes, Erma leaves her golden locks.

To Miss Reuman, we leave a new recipe for white thauth—hers isn't the right conthithtency.

To Miss Smith, a stronger elastic that she may continue to take pictures of senior classes.

To Dr. Goyette, a model 18 day diet.

To Dr. Greene, McLaury leaves her immunity to childhood diseases.

To Roosevelt, Coffin leaves sincerest sympathy and understanding.

To Mr. Bacon, Badgley leaves all the time she has saved.

To the telephone operators, we give our thanks for telling those little white lies to our boy friends.

To Miss Caire, Rehbeck leaves a vocabulary to use when talking to Jake.

To Mrs. Smith, more T. and A.'s, they only stay over night.

To Miss Walker and Miss Ferguson, we leave more rest and less labor.

In testimony whereof we hereunto set our hand and affix our seal and in the presence of three witnesses, declare this to be our last will and testament, this first day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.
